

The Ramadan Carnival

The festive season is here and Bahrain's popular family mall, Bahrain Mall, has mega entertainment lined up for visitors this month.

Ramadan celebrations at Bahrain Mall have always been imaginative and caught the fancy of shoppers of all ages. Inspired by the success of its Ramadan funfair year after year, this year Bahrain Mall's Ramadan event has been themed the Ramadan Carnival with entertainment for the entire family in a fairground or fête-like atmosphere. In keeping with the carnival theme, Bahrain Mall promises some major attractions featuring international performers - entertainers with their acts of Aerial Ballet, Foot Juggling, Plate Spinning, Fire Dances, Adagio and Acrobats - and much more to entertain you everyday and during the Eid holidays.

Spend & Win!

For shoppers spending at the mall during Ramadan there's even greater excitement in store. For every BD15 spent at any mall outlet or kiosk, visitors will receive 1 raffle coupon. This will entitle shoppers to enter a raffle draw with a chance to win a SsangYong Rexton SUV, shopping vouchers from The Home Store and many more prizes. The raffle draw will take place on 17th October 2007. To add to the thrill of the offers, shoppers get to double their chances to win any of these fabulous prizes by paying with their MasterCard Credit Card and triple their chances of winning if they pay with their Credimax MasterCard Credit Card.

Credimax Hospitality Tent

Visitors to Bahrain Mall are cordially invited to the Credimax traditional Arab hospitality tent located on the first floor. Here visitors can meet the team of Credimax experts who will assist them with any questions or feedback regarding Credimax products and services. For shoppers this will be a unique opportunity to experience warm hospitality and understand Credimax services.

Join the Carnival!

The atmosphere will be like a carnival with loads of entertainment from clowns, dwarfs, and other fun characters. Kids can enjoy free face painting, candy floss and carry away free balloons. There will also be an opportunity to have a picture taken with Spiderman. For a taste of tradition, there will be the time-honoured falcons on show and henna painting located at the Credimax hospitality tent.

Week

Watch out for the last week, including Eid, when festivities will gain momentum. From 11th - 15th October every evening from 8pm to midnight there will be even more entertainment.

Watch the Chinese dancers do the ribbon dance with ease along with foot juggling, plate spinning and diabolo. See the Russians Vladimir and Joanna, masterfully blend the arts of acrobatics and dance, to produce acrobatic adagio and aerial dance on silks. Tim, from London, is adept at creating unique and imaginative entertainment - don't miss his Juggling, Fire Dancing and crazy Acrobatics. Lastly, don't miss out on the famous Tanoura dancer from Egypt with his mesmerising dance, creating patterns with his colourful skirt while whirling and casting a spell on the audience.

Finally....

Once again during this Ramadan, all these entertainment events and promotions are co-sponsored by The Home Store, Baz, Motor City, CrediMax and MasterCard. Throughout the year, Bahrain Mall offers the ultimate family shopping experience with over 125 stores to choose from, bringing the very best of everything for their valued customers, not only in terms of entertainment, but also with value-added shopping too. The Ramadan Carnival 2007 promises to be a real delight for all the family ■

Bahrain Mall is located in the Seef district.